THE BUSINESS WORLD.

In their weekly business review R. G. Dun & Co. state that not the least important feature of the railroad presidents' arrangements is the fact that bankers of large influence commit themselves, in case the compact is signed, to refuse their countenance or aid to the negotiation of securities for new competing lines or to extensions of the railroads not agreeing to the compact. The report of the inter-state commission shows that on 120,000 miles of road, for the year ending June 30, 1888, the stock and bonds were of equal par value, but on 52 1/2 per cent of the stock no dividend was paid, and on 20 per cent of the bonds no interest, while the proportion paying less than 4 per cent was 63 per cent of the stock and 21 per cent of the bonds. The decision of Judge Barrett, holding that sugar trust is illegal and void is of large importance. No change occurs as yet in prices of sugars, and it may be premature to suppose that other forms of agreement, escaping the legal objections found in this case, may not continue to control markets.

There are signs in Europe that the copper trust is trying to cast upon the public part of its accumulating load through the organization of a copper bank.

Speculation in hogs and lard has tended toward low figures. Another fall in wheat has occurred, the price closing 1 1/2 lower for the week, exports being still arrested. Corn fell 1 1/2 and oats advanced nearly 1c, with oil practically unchanged and cotton a shade stronger.

The weekly output of iron, anthracite and coke January 1, was 142,452 tons, against 136,627 a month ago, and 121,307 a year ago. For the past year the production is estimated at 5,600,000 gross tons. The enormous supply makes the market duller than usual for this season.

In the rail market no change is reported. The demand for bar iron is somewhat improved, and $1.80 to $1.75 is quoted for the best refined.

The coal trade is very dull, and the restriction of output is now so far enforced that the record for the last week of December was nearly 474,282 tons.

In the wool trade the demand is not large, but prices are firmly held in belief that stocks are scarce.

Cotton goods are in better demand at steady or improved prices. Sales in speculative markets have been small during the past week, and the general tendency of prices for commodities as a whole is still downward.

Reports from interior towns show that failures continue numerous, and the complaints of tardy collections frequent. But there is hardly any complaint of monetary scarcity. The treasury holds $5,100,000 less cash than it did a week ago, and at present apprehensions of gold exports are lessened by heavy exports of merchandise.

The money market here is easier and rates lower than a week ago, and the feeling of confidence in the financial and commercial future is still unshaken. The failures during the last seven days number 341, as against 387 last week and 229 the week previous. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 270.

Secretary Whitney bubbles over with praises for the Messrs Cramp, the builders of the new dynamite cruiser, Vesuvius, and they are undoubtedly entitled to the credit of having done their work well. The Vesuvius is a smart little vessel, and under the best possible conditions she can beat her contract time. It is necessary to point out, remarks the New York Tribune, though we do it without reflecting upon the builders in the least, that the tests Secretary Whitney is applying to the vessels built under his contracts are very different and in every way far less severe than the tests he so cruelly insisted on applying to the Roach cruisers. The Dolphin, for instance, was compelled to speed at her highest rate for six hours continuously and after half a dozen trials of this kind she was sent off oceanward in search of a storm. Then, because some glasses rattled on a shelf, she was rejected, her builder ruined and his great works destroyed. The Vesuvius is accepted when she spouts her best over a seven-minute measured course in smooth water. We are not saying that this test is insufficient. We are merely performing the duty of pointing out that it makes a difference to Secretary Whitney whose ex is being gored.

The Voice holds up Galeberg, Illinois, as a shocking example of the immorality of a law under a high-license law, but it keeps directly mum about Philadelphia, where the Brooks law has worked such astonishing results. A Philadelphia paper has interviewed most, if not all, of the police magistrates in the city, and they are unanimous in the declaration that the falling off in work since the adoption of the high-license law has been simply extraordinary. The average commitments in each district on Sunday and Monday mornings has fallen from about twenty-five or more to four or five, or even less. In a neighborhood where there were usually fifty prisoners on a Sunday morning, it often happens that the police telegraph the magistrate not to come, as there are none. All agree in ascribing this change to the Brooks law. Another notable difference is the falling off of intemperance among women. "Before this bill went into effect," said one magistrate, "I would have at least one woman drunk before me every morning. It is three weeks since I had a woman before me."

The Globe-Democrat: One-cent postage now at once as soon as the republicans are in power—that is the war-cry of progress and reform. It is the demand of the people. It is warranted as safe as the history of our postoffice system. It will nearly banish postal cards, which at best are a nuisance, only at present a necessary nuisance. It will not only double the letters sent, but triple them. The deficiency will probably be no greater than now. Even if it is increased, no tax will be more welcome than one that increases the facilities for intercommunication. Its existence is essential to our existence as a nation; its extinction is the most valuable form and condition is essential to our progress.

At a recent meeting of the Rhode Island Historical Society the fact was then brought out that the town of Providence came very near seceding. Rhode Island was so slow and reluctant in ratifying the federal constitution that Providence instructed its delegates in the convention in case that the instrument should be rejected finally, to unite with such other towns as might desire to do so in placing themselves under the protection of the United States. This threat brought the Rhode Island obstructionists to their senses.

Statistics show the loss by fire for 1888 was less by $6,000,000 than that of 1887, and greater than that of any of the three years preceding 1887. Since 1884 the nation's tribute to carelessness and crime amounts to more than a half billion dollars, and this with continual improvements in the science of fire protection. January of 1888 with $16,040,000 loss, took the lead of all the months for the past three years.

ABSENT-MINDEDNESS

An Amusing Anecdote of Ampere, the Electrician.

There was lately unveiled at Lyons, in France, a statue of Ampere, a famous man of science, who wrote some wonderful works on electricity, when that science was in its infancy, and whose name is perpetuated in the word which signifies the unit of an electric current.

It was said of his "Observations on Electro-Dynamics," published in 1822, that "the vast field of physical science perhaps never presented so brilliant a discovery, conceived, verified and completed with such rapidity."

But Ampere was so great a thinker that he forgot everything else when his thinking was going on. His simplicity of life made him an interesting character, apart from his scientific work.

Probably there never was a more absent-minded man. His wife had to keep track of his engagements for him, and often had great difficulty in getting him to keep them when he was on his mind.

One day he had a very important engagement, to go out to dinner with some public men and men of science. The engagement was for 6 o'clock, and though he had been warned, Madame Ampere found him, when that hour had almost arrived, still toiling at his desk.

By dint of a good deal of effort, she got him to leave his work, and go to his bed-room to dress for the dinner.

He went to his room with his thoughts still on his work. He took off his coat and waistcoat, and finding himself in his shirt-sleeves, he imagined that he had gone to room to retire, and thereupon went to bed.

There, an hour or two afterward, Madame Ampere found him fast asleep.

CRASHED TO THEIR DEATH

TERRIBLE RESULT OF AN OHIO COLLISION.

A Flagman's Mistake Causes a Horrible Accident to a Passenger Train—The Fatalities.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, Jan. 15.—Passenger train No. 8, bound for New York on the New York, Pennsylvania & Ohio railroad, while running fifty miles an hour this morning, struck a freight train near Tallmadge, Ohio.

Both engines, both firemen, and eight passengers were killed and fourteen passengers badly injured. The freight train was attempting to make a siding, and had sent out a flagman, who failed to signal the passenger train. The disaster is more serious than the one at Pittman, when the Grand Army train was wrecked.

LATER.—A report has just been received here that seven Chinamen are missing and are probably buried in the ruins.

Particulars of the accident on the New York, Pennsylvania & Ohio road near Kent, Ohio, as far as are known, are as follows: The third section of freight train No. 81 west broke in two between Kent and Tallmadge. The front end of the freight was put on the side track and a man was left at Tallmadge to flag passenger train No. 8 east bound, then nearly due.

The flagman then heard a whistled signal from his engine to return to the train, and did not perform the duty required of him. The engines came together with fatal results to eight persons and injuries to six others. Those reported killed are:

ROBERT HUNTINGTON of Gallon, Ohio passenger.

WILLIAM WALTERS of Gallon, passenger fireman.

J. F. RUSHFORD of Gallon, freight brakeman.

WILLIAM LUNDY of Salamannac, N. Y., Wells, Fargo & Co.'s express messenger.

Three Chinamen.

MARY ANN LYON of Idaho, ticket second-class to Cherry Creek, N. Y.

The injured are:

DAVID THOMAS of Gallon, baggage master; badly injured, at first reported killed.

ROBERT OWEN of Kent, newsboy, shoulder dislocated and bad cuts and bruises.

SAM DOUTGLASS, engineer, of Gallon, leg and head cut and bruised; burned about the abdomen.

JAMES BOYD, of Paterson, N. J., severely hurt on head and back.

GEORGE SNOW, of Gallon, freight brakeman, cut and bruised.

THOMAS FAIRFAX (colored), of Cleveland, leg broken in two places below the knee and cut on head.

Other passengers whose names were not earned, received slight injuries, but none of them are serious. Those in the two sleepers escaped practically unhurt.

The collision took place at a point about two miles from Tallmadge. The tracks on both sides were bounded by a heavy growth of trees, and the country in the vicinity is but sparsely inhabited. A few minutes after the accident occurred flames began to shoot out of the baggage car and smoker. The passengers and train people immediately began the work of rescuing the injured and dead from the wreck. The coach in the rear of the smoker was badly damaged, and the end of the baggage car had crushed far into the smoker. As soon as the injured and dead were removed from the second coach, which was also on fire, the two sleepers were detached and pushed back by hand out of reach of the flames. None of the passengers in the sleepers were injured, and all the persons who escaped death were placed in the sleepers, and an extra engine conveyed them to a side-track, where the next east-bound train coupled to them and proceeded to Leavittsburg. It is reported that twelve persons were injured.

Eighteen Men Given Up for Lost.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Jan. 15.—All hope for the safety of the Austrian ship, the Warden, now out 103 days, on route from Montevideo to Philadelphia, has been given up, and there is no longer any doubt that she has gone to the bottom.

The crew consisted of eighteen souls, all from Trieste, Austria.

Killed by an Elevator.

TRIO, N. Y., Jan. 15.—By a fall of an elevator at W. A. Wood's moving machine works at Hoosier Park, this morning, William Carroll and Octave Bosley were killed and Thomas Heron and Vego Jansen seriously injured. The men were employees of the works. The elevator was intended for freight only.

Death at a Fire.

CHICAGO FALLS, Mass., Jan. 15.—An incendiary fire occurred here this morning, in which W. S. Warner lost his life and two other men were seriously injured. The flames were in a small room and resulted in but small loss to property.

TOOK PLENTY OF CASH.

An Elmira Insurance Agent Gets Away with Over $20,000.

ELMIRA, N. Y., Jan. 15.—C. C. Cunningham, general agent of the Mutual Life insurance company of New York, is alleged to have absconded with $22,898.

Cunningham came to this city in 1886 and opened an office representing the company in several counties in this vicinity.

He advertised heavily, boarded at the Rathbone house, the best hotel in the city, pretended to be doing an immense business, and finally was looked upon as a thoroughly reliable business man. He has been working very hard the past few months, making remarkably close collections, and, as an insurance man said to-night, "he started the business." One day the latter part of last week Cunningham went to the Farmers' and Mechanics' bank in this city and presented drafts purporting to have been signed by the Mutual Life Insurance company of New York. The drafts appeared to be all right and Cunningham was given a certificate of deposit for them. Cunningham took the certificate of deposit to the Chemung National bank, about two blocks away, and there deposited them, receiving New York drafts in exchange. This transaction, it seems, took place Sunday afternoon, the exchange being made at Cunningham's earnest solicitation for his accommodation.

With the drafts Cunningham went to Binghamton, and there at a bank received the cash. He left the latter city Monday at 12:30 on the Lackawanna train for the east. Saturday evening the insurance company's drafts were sent to New York from the Farmers' and Mechanics' bank, and at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon the bank officers noticed that the drafts were in exchange. Cunningham had graduated from the Brockport (N. Y.) normal school, was admitted to the bar in Broome county, practiced at Okeford, Chemung county, and spent several years in the West as a teacher. He is about 45 years old and unmarried. He also leaves several unpaid bills in this city.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

A Day's Business in the Senate and House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—In the Senate Mr. Teller, from the committee on public lands, reported the Senate bill authorizing the entry of a certain tract of land, 320 acres, for township purposes for the town of Flagstaff, in Arizona. Passed.

Mr. Hoar introduced a concurrent resolution for the counting of the votes for President and Vice Presidents, which was referred to the committee on privileges and elections. It provides that the two Houses of Congress shall assemble in the hall of two Houses of Representatives on Wednesday, (Feb. 3) next, at one o'clock in the afternoon; that the President of the Senate shall be the presiding officer; that two persons shall be appointed tellers on the part of the Senate, and two on the part of the House, to make a list of the votes and to report the result; that the President of the Senate, who is to announce the state of the vote and the persons elected; and that that shall be deemed a declaration of the persons elected President and Vice-President of the United States, and shall be entered on the journals of the two Houses.

The Senate then proceeded to the consideration of the Tariff bill; and Mr. Allison, on the part of the Finance committee, reported two new sections, which he proposed to offer as amendments. They relate to a bounty on sugar, and provide that on April 1, 1890, there shall be paid to the producer of sugar, testing not less than 80 degrees by the polariscope from beets, sorghum, or sugar cane grown within the United States, a bounty of 1 cent per pound under such regulations as the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, shall prescribe. The bounty is to be paid annually from the duties collected on imported sugar.

The pending question was on the amendment offered by Mr. Gray last Saturday, to section 2,190, to the admission of vessels free of duty necessary for the construction and equipment of vessels built in the United States for foreign account and ownership or for the foreign trade, the amendment being to strike out of the section the words "angles, beams and bolts and copper composition metal which may be necessary for the construction and equipment of vessels," and insert in lieu thereof the words "sheets, angles, beams and bolts, deck and hull beams, together with all structural shapes of iron or steel and copper composition metal; forgings of iron or steel castings of iron, steel or composition; flues and tubes of iron, steel composition; machinery parts of machines and all other articles of foreign production necessary for the construction and equipment of steamers or other vessels."

Mr. Gray submitted some additional remarks in favor of the amendment.

The House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—In the House, immediately after the reading of the journal, Mr. Randall (Pa.), from the Committee on Rules, reported a resolution rescinding the rules requiring a daily adjournment at 5 o'clock. The proposition was to rise to an interesting debate, in which Messrs. Cannon and Reed took the ground that it should be agreed to as strengthening the rights and powers of a majority against a filibustering minority. Mr. Payson strenuously opposed it, declaring that it was the outcome of a bargain between Mr. Weaver and the Democratic members of the committee on rules, and incidentally denouncing the Oklahoma bill, pointing out in the bill permitting a legally organized corporation to locate town sites on payment of a pittance into the treasury, thus repealing as far as Oklahoma is concerned the law of 1864, providing that the proceeds arising out of the location of town sites shall be used for the benefit of the inhabitants of the towns.

Mr. Payson's remarks aroused great indignation among the friends of the Oklahoma bill, but they were unable to obtain the floor to reply to him.

Mr. Randall indignantly denied that there had been any bargain made with Mr. Weaver, and declared that the resolution had been reported in order to permit the House to transact its business. After further debate the resolution was agreed to—yeas, 155; nays, 82—and the House then proceeded to the transaction of routine business.

YOUNG BLAINE IN OVERALLS.

James, Jr., Begins Work in the Locomotive Department of a Railroad.

WATERVILLE, Me., Jan. 15.—James G. Blaine, Jr., began his career as an apprentice in the repair shops of the Maine Central railroad in the regulation overalls. As from his smoking cigarettes all day, his conduct was a little awkward. His handling of the tools was not as easy as it might have been, but he showed a determination to master the work. The salary attached to young Blaine's position is not very remunerative, but will increase with time. The employees of the railroad company looked upon young man's arrival with considerable merriment, and frequently asserted that they will "take the grease out of him," and that he won't last long.

GOV. FIFER'S INAUGURAL

ILLINOIS' NEW EXECUTIVE FOR-MALLY INSTALLED.

Ex-Gov. Oglesby's Felicitous Remarks—Crush at the Reception—The Electoral College.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 15.—Joseph W.
Fifer was formally inaugurated Governor of Illinois Monday afternoon. The exercises were impressive, and were witnessed by all the members of the State Legislature
and throngs of spectators.

The ceremonies were held in the hall of the House of Representatives, which had been gaily decorated for the occasion. The House met at 1:45 o'clock and appointed a committee to request the attendance of the members of the Senate of the United States.
The committee was made up of the Governor-elect and the incoming officers to the bar of
the House.

At 2 o'clock the great hall was packed.
Speaker Matthews rapped the assemblage

to order and the formal exercises of the day began. The oath of office was administered to the Governor by Chief Justice
Craig. After Gov. Fifer, Hon. George Hunt took his official oath on entering upon his second term as Attorney General, and the new State Treasurer, State Auditor, and Secretary of State also formally took
the oath of office.

Gov. Fifer then delivered his inaugural address, which was received with hearty applause. Scarcely had he finished the reading when there were calls for Oglesby and cheers for the ex-Governor, to which
"Uncle Dick" happily responded, saying:

Ex-Gov. Oglesby's Address.

"My fellow-citizens, the circumstances which you have witnessed to day are no uncommon ceremony, but constitute a very momentous one for good. Men clothed with political power for the first time in their lives feel more deeply than before the responsibility of the position
they have assumed. The people are gratified by the change of power. The change of politics is wonderfully strange. This morning the sun rose upon a live Governor (putting his hand on his own breast), a Major-General at least, and a Commander-in-chief of the militia of the State. But that Governor, that commander-in-chief, is no more.
Turning to Gov. Fifer, our distinguished fellow-citizen, to who is Governor-elect no more but Governor in fact, I make my first bow. [Prolonged applause.] That Governor, Major-General, Commander-in-chief, who welcomed with tolerable willingness the rising sun, changes places with the private soldier. [Applause.] That private soldier is a private soldier no longer. He is at least of the rank of Major-General, for he is commander-in-chief of the militia of the State, and your humble servant is transferred to the honorable station of a private soldier. [Great applause and laughter.] It is a most welcome arrangement so far as I am concerned in being relieved from public life—taking my departure in the presence of the legislature, judicial, and executive departments of the State. In such a presence, then, I consider it a fortunate circumstance that your politeness
and good nature has given me occasion
to thus bid farewell to public and official life. [A voice: "You're all right yet.
Hurrah for old Dick." Laughter and applause.]

"I have lived for more than a half-century in the good State of Illinois. I grew from infancy to boyhood, from boyhood to manhood, and from manhood to mature years in the grand old State. How many thousand and thousands of our fellow-known boys have been lifted up by the generous hand of the great State. How she has welcomed into her spacious prairies and generous homes the good and well disposed of public and official conditions. Here my home has been, and here, Mr. Speaker, it will ever be. [Applause.] I return from the very depths of my heart, with humiliation and reverence
to our God in Heaven, my sincere gratitude to you, the representatives of the people and of the State and to the people themselves for the uniform kindness and indulgence with which they have treated and regarded me. [Applause.] They have my only regret, Mr. Speaker and Mr.
Chief Justice, is that I cannot have more fittingly discharged the duties and met more ably the calls that have been made upon me by the people of the State. I did my best, and that is all that man
can do. [Applause.] I feel proud, my friends,
in the consciousness which I have to-day
of having done my best in the service of my country. I did my best in the field and in the State and in the nation.
[Long continued applause.]

Lieut.-Gov. Ray Installed.

At the close of the proceedings in the hall of the House the Senate returned to the chamber. Lieut.-Gov. Ray delivered his farewell address, concluding as follows:

"You, the Senators of this great State and the members of the House, are called upon to perform responsible duties, to make laws for the government of 4,000,000 of people—a people as intelligent, as virtuous,
and as thrifty as any equal number upon any part of the globe. It is a pleasure for me to know that my successor, to whom I now give place, is well-known to you. He has ever proved himself to be on the side of the people in the State and in the nation.
I bespeak for him your confidence and your support, knowing full well that through his courtesy and fairness he will prove himself worthy of the same.

Stepping gracefully aside Gov. Smith yielded his chair to Lieut.-Gov. Ray and placed in the latter's hand the gavel of authority. The new Lieutenant-Governor then addressed the Senate briefly, and after adopting a resolution thanking the retiring Lieutenant-Governor for his faithfulness in discharging his duties, the Senate adjourned.

The Evening Reception.

There was a perfect jam at the mansion
in the evening. Those receiving were Gov.
and Mrs. Fifer, Lieut.-Gov. Ray and wife,
Secretary of State, Auditor Pavey,
Treasurer Becker and daughter, Attorney General Hunt and Mrs. Lewis, and Dr.
Edwards, Superintendent of Public Instruction, and wife. Secretary Dement was master of the monster throng. It was great that no one could properly observe the decorations in the reception room,
where holly leaves and flowers produced a beautiful effect.

No Committees Appointed.

The House committee on rules failed to do anything at all Monday, and the senate committee did not meet according to arrangement. They both hold meetings Tuesday to take the initial steps in the formation of the committees. Members who have bills ready to be introduced are anxious to have the question of the committees settled in order that they may know where their measures are to go.

According to program ex-Gov. Oglesby and his family left Monday evening for New Orleans, Texas and the South.

R. Francis was duly inaugurated Governor of the State of Missouri at 11:30 Monday

WILLIAM'S WORDS.

Germany's Emperor Makes a Speech
From the Throne.

BERLIN, Jan. 15.—The Emperor opened
the session of the Prussian diet to-day, declaring in a speech from the throne that he said his relations with foreign powers were friendly. His visits abroad had advanced his evidence that the powers were friendly. The economic situation had improved. Further measures would be introduced to promote the interests of industry and of the workingmen. The finances were in a satisfactory condition.

The Hague King passed a fair night and is better this morning.

The Emperor went on to say that an increase of 200,000,000 marks in the savings banks shows that trade has improved. The satisfactory character of the finances has enabled the Government to further reduce taxation. Among the measures which are to be introduced in the landtag are bills to further increase the emoluments of the clergy of all denominations, to improve the position of teachers in the national elementary schools, and for regulating the stamp
tax. Having regard to the admirably satisfactory development of the railways,
the assignment of extraordinary resources to further extend them will be asked. A credit will be requested for the relief of the sufferers by the floods of 1907. A measure will be introduced dealing with the general administration of Posen.

Stanley Again Reported Safe.

LONDON, Jan. 15.—The Chronicle asserts that the government will be informed of Henry M. Stanley's safety long before the end of the month. The Chronicle says that Stanley has reached the east coast of Africa, and that in the meantime recent letters from Stanley will be published in London. There are certain reasons, the Chronicle says, for keeping secret, for the present, the whereabouts of the explorer.

It is reported that letters have been received by the Government from Stanley giving an assurance of his safety. The letters are temporarily withheld from publication for some alleged diplomatic reason. The Government it is said, will make them public very shortly. The story is generally accepted as authentic.

Anarchists Don't Want to Vote.

PARIS, Jan. 15.—The Anarchists of this city have issued a manifesto to the electors of the department of the Seine in which they appeal to the people not to vote for any candidate. The manifesto says: "The Senate and Chamber of Deputies are powerless to emancipate the people. A revolution alone will free them from their oppressors."

Sergeants Join the League.

LONDON, Jan. 15.—Two sergeants belonging to the Royal Irish constabulary, have been elected members of the National League for the Emancipation of the Irish.
They say that their action in joining the league is a test against the employment of the military in evicting tenants.

The King of Holland Rapidly Sinking.

THE HAGUE, Jan. 15.—A special cabinet council was held Monday for the purpose of discussing the question of a regency. The King is unable to take food and is rapidly sinking.

Sheets, a well-known stockman of Macdonald, Iowa, was found dead in the car

The churches represented and the work done—A Two-Days' Meeting.

The pastors of many representative German Lutheran churches of southern Wisconsin met in this city to-day. Literally speaking, it was the Rock River German Lutheran Conference of Wisconsin district, synod of Wisconsin.

In a more general way, it was a meeting of pastors from most of the churches in counties bordering on Rock River. Among those noticed in the various groups were:

Rev. W. Leemann—Mayville, Dodge county.

Rev. C. Sewel—Portage city.

Rev. F. Schilling—Golden Lake, Jefferson county.

Rev. W. Graef—Concord, Jefferson county.

Rev. O. Strasen—Mortown, Rock county.

Rev. E. Baese—Clinton, Rock county.

Rev. Geo. Wildermuth—Edgerton, Rock county.

The conference was called to order this morning. The work taken up was scriptural discussions, and this discussion was led by the Rev. Max Albrecht, of this city. Among the subjects which the conference is to discuss, are Galatians 1, 17; and St. John 2, 1-11.

The service at seven o'clock this evening will be preceded by confession and followed by communion. It will be conducted by the Rev. George Wildermuth, of Edgerton, Mr. Wildermuth speaking on the second chapter of St. Luke 41-52. The Rev. C. Sewel, of Portage city, will officiate as confessor.

The conference will close to-morrow, services being held morning and afternoon.

DEATH OF REV. HIRSH FOSTER.

A FORMER PASTOR OF THE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH DIES IN ROCKFORD.

A dispatch from Rockford to the Chicago papers under yesterday's date, states that the Rev. Hiram Foster died Monday morning of old age. Deceased resided in Janesville many years where he was pastor of the First Congregational church, and was one of the first to lend his aid in organizing that society in this city. He was at one time connected with the public schools of the city, and in many ways assisted in forming Janesville's society in an early day. For the last twelve years he resided in Rockford. Many people of Janesville who remember the deceased when he was full of activity among us and took note of his many acts of kindness towards his fellow beings, pointing out the true road for the young as well as the aged, will extend their heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family.

WM. A. EAGER.

Mr. John T. Wilcox received a dispatch late this afternoon from Chicago, announcing the death of Wm. A. Eager, his death occurring this morning. No particulars are given. The remains will be brought to this city for interment, probably on Thursday. Mr. Eager resided in Janesville for many years, going from here to Chicago to reside sometime or ten years ago. He has many warm friends in Janesville who will read the announcement of his death with much sorrow.

DON'T LIKE THE CROP.

BUYERS SAY THAT THE '88 LEAF IS LARGER-LEAFED.

Sales of leaf tobacco so far this year have been scattering. Prices have been maintained at any fixed standard, but it is stated by dealers that the prices on the various grades of goods are within not half a cent of those that have prevailed during the past three years. The crop of '88 is reported by many who have been buying as having an unusually large percentage of benders. Where leaf has been farm-sorted binders and wrappers are after more, and the manufacturer complains.

"I can't afford to have my hands lose time by trying to pick out a dozen wrappers from a pound of this stuff. If I take it, it will have to be as binder."

Complaint is also made that considerable of this year's leaf is likely to give trouble on account of white vein; but the fact remains that Wisconsin has much less '88 stock and that for those who can make a good showing prices will be liberal.

I used Salvation Oil for rheumatism in the feet, and after several applications was entirely relieved of pain, and could walk as well as ever.
